

RWABURA IRRIGATION DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

SCOPE OF THE PROJECT	SPECIFIC ACHIEVEMENTS OF KEY PERFORMANCE OUTPUTS	EXPECTED PROJECT BENEFITS
The project will entail: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Review of design</li> <li>• Intake weir and sedimentation basin</li> <li>• Conveyance pipes-12Km</li> <li>• Main lines-53Km</li> <li>• Sub main lines -112km</li> <li>• Irrigation kits-3000 farmers</li> <li>• Project office</li> </ul> Farmers training The project aims at providing irrigation infrastructure for 1,500 acres that will support production of horticultural crops and fruits. The project is set to benefit over 3,000 farmers whose earnings is projected at Kshs.390 million value of produce annually and create employment for over 7,500 people.	The National Treasury has concluded the financing agreement having secured the legal opinion of the AG and awaits concurrence of effectiveness from the Spanish government. The process of disclosure to facilitate acquisition of the wayleaves has been concluded. Subsequently, PAPs for the project will be compensated as per the signed disclosure forms. The project has a completion rate of 5% as to date, with design review having been completed and presented by the contractor and approval granted for commencement of construction activities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Employment opportunities for the locals. The contractor is sourcing unskilled labour from the local communities</li> <li>• Development of infrastructure, the roads connecting to the intake site have been graded for easier transportation of the materials to the site. This is a community benefit as well.</li> <li>• Improved security in the area</li> <li>• Increased cropping intensity, increasing the amount of income earned by the farmers and thereby improving the living standards of the residents</li> <li>• Increased food security in the area and in the country at large.</li> <li>• Increased contribution to countries GDP through both local and export sales of the food products.</li> </ul>